

Heart of Illinois Via de Cristo Privacy Policy

This privacy policy was created in order to demonstrate the commitment of Heart of Illinois Via de Cristo to the privacy of its community. This policy explains the types of information that are collected and how this information is used.

What Personally Identifiable Information is Collected

Heart of Illinois Via de Cristo weekend participants who register for a weekend voluntarily provide us with contact information (including name, email, phone number and address). We may use this information for specific, limited purposes. You may always “opt out” either now or at any time in the future, if you do not wish to receive our messages.

How Your Information May Be Used

Heart of Illinois Via de Cristo uses your information to provide you with communication pertaining to this ministry. We send you email prayer requests, event announcements, the eNewsletters and updates from the National Lutheran Secretariat. You may choose to opt out at any time, which will cease all communication from us.

Information Privacy and Security

Heart of Illinois Via de Cristo does not provide, sell or rent email addresses, phone numbers or mailing addresses to anyone outside of the community. Individual requests for contact information of a community member from another community member will be considered on a case by case basis.
